

St. Nicholas Weekly News

October 23rd-27th, 2023

Dear Families,

Our Parent/Teacher conferences will be held on Monday, October 30 and Wednesday, November 1. Teachers will be conducting the conferences in person or via phone. Parents will have the opportunity to choose what is most convenient for them. The information and link to schedule an interview will be sent out this week.

God Bless,

Peter Rachmistruk

Upcoming Important Dates:

- Monday, October 30 - Parent/Teacher conferences
- Tuesday, October 31 - Halloween
- Wednesday, November 1 - Parent/Teacher conferences
- Sunday, November 5 - Catholic Education Sunday mass 10:30am at OLPH Parish

Information

- Students are invited to come to school dressed in their Halloween costumes on Tuesday, October 31st. In the afternoon, students will be participating in a parade, Halloween stations, classroom activities and end the day with some fun Halloween dances in the gym.

Book Fair (Oct. 26- Nov. 2)

- We invite your entire family to participate in this year's book fair by purchasing the latest and greatest in children's books. It is a win-win situation with every purchase. Did you know that for every $10 spent at the Book Fair, up to $5 in product goes directly back to our school library? This is the only fundraising that the library does. Come in during the evenings of Parent /Teacher conferences (Oct. 30 and Nov. 1) and you can have a chance to enter our Family Event Draw to win $25 worth of books for your family and $25 for your child's classroom. Thank you for believing in books and the importance of reading in your child's future. Mrs. Nixon, Librarian

Faith Reflection

Dear Child of God, you are loved with a love that nothing can shake, a love that loved you long before you were created, a love that will be there long after everything has totally disappeared. You are precious, with a preciousness that is totally immeasurable. And God wants you to be like God, filled with life, goodness and joy. May you live fully, be healthy, and find peace and joy. Amen
